A Cultural Deal for Europe Hub Meeting: Netherlands

Date: 10 May 2021, 15:00 – 17:00

Location: Online (Zoom)

Organisers: The Europaplatform and Culture Action Europe

To mark Europe Day 2021, the Dutch Europaplatform (coordinated by Kunsten '92, European Cultural Foundation and Culture Action Europe) is hosting a Culture Action Europe Hub meeting*. The meeting will bring together professionals active in the Dutch cultural and creative sector with a (future) interest in working across European borders, to collaboratively examine the Cultural Deal for Europe and examine how it can be made relevant to the Dutch context.

The meeting will look at how the Deal can strengthen European cultural policy at Dutch national level. The aim is to generate concrete proposals for how to implement the Cultural Deal within the Netherlands, and to investigate ways in which to connect European campaigns to their Dutch counterparts.

The hub meeting will focus specifically on five pillars from the Cultural Deal, deemed most relevant to the Dutch context. These five pillars will be explored in breakout rooms where all participants will exchange thoughts following inspiring examples of the pillars in practice. Input gathered during these sessions will serve as the basis for the proposals generated as the outcome of the meeting.
